

Somme Battlefields 2008

Most, if not all Orient supporters are now aware of the O's major contribution to the Great War. Following the tremendous success of our inaugural visit to the Somme in 2006, the Supporters' Club, in conjunction with the Royal British Legion is proud to confirm that a return trip to the battlefields of northern France has been booked for the weekend of July 12/13 2008. We will obviously be visiting the resting places of the three Clapton Orient footballers who lost their lives during the Battle of the Somme in 1916 – Richard McFadden, William Jonas and George Scott. Other places of interest will also be included in the final itinerary, thus ensuring the trip will be one to remember.

Total Cost: £99 Including coach, ferry, overnight hotel accommodation and breakfast.

Deposit: £35 per person. Demand is expected to be high and as there are only 180 places available - to ensure your place is booked, please complete this form and return bottom section ASAP to Steve Jenkins along with your deposit to LOSC or 73 Havering Gardens, Chadwell Heath, Romford, Essex. RM6 5BH. First come - First Served.

Please Note: A valid passport is required for you to travel to France – No Passport – No Journey. LOSC/LBRBL accept no liability for any injuries or loss of items on this trip however caused – all travellers are responsible for their own travel insurance arrangements.
